Looking for a completely different backcountry hiking experience with the thrill of hiking across a glacier? Our Wapta Ice Hike is an amazing hut-to-hut adventure that will see you donning crampons and wielding an ice axe to traverse the Wapta Icefield. If you have never spent time on a glacier, it is an absolutely incredible experience normally reserved for mountaineers. We spend one night each at the Alpine Club of Canada’s Bow and Peyto Huts which are situated on rocky outcroppings high in the alpine near the toe of the glaciers. This unique hiking program is perfect for fit hikers or first time backpackers who want to learn about basic mountain safety and are looking for a unique way to experience the mountains.
